Welcome to the new Johnsons Linen Room

As room occupancy changes each day, the amount of clean linen needed by your hotel will change, especially during busy periods. Which is why we've created the Johnsons Linen Room. It's a place where you can manage your linen count to ensure you always have a enough clean linen for your guests, and avoid having to overstock with linen that doesn't get used.

Highest quality linen delivered with care.
We deliver over 10 million items of linen every week, supplying over 150,000 hotel bedrooms across England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.
